2. The above parties hereby stipulate to the jurisdiction of the Board over this matter.

This agreement is not intended to be and is not deemed to be evidence of, or admission of, any violation of law on the part of Jatich.

6. As a result of an investigation conducted by the Board, Jatich was notified by Notice that the Board intended to determine whether or not to issue a fine, reprimand, revoke or suspend his license to practice architecture in the State of Ohio based upon allegations that he aided and abetted a non-architect in the performance of activities that constituted the practice of architecture involving the provision of design services for a Subway restaurant in Cuyahoga, Falls, Ohio in 2007.
